

When I see you (d.t. Sony)

written by Rainer P. Gottschall, 26th of June 1997 in Crete/Malia

What is life without you just a worthless, useless number of coincidences

Life without you seems so dull and hollow it has no meaning, has no sense

I tried to forget you, cleanse you from my mind
But I found that quite impossible
A deed I cannot fulfill

REFRAIN:

‘Cause when I see you I’m drowning in your eyes

When I hear you laugh
I hear angels sing

When I see you smile
It lightens up my life

But it’s just for the moment ‘cause you will be gone before night

And till you come back I live my life in darkness Feeling desperate and lone

And wonder if you will think of me and if you miss me too

And I imagine you knocking on the door Seeking a way into my life

But that’s just my foolish imagination it will never come true though I hope everyday that I’m wrong with this Because I wish you were here
